Abby Modell to participate in American Craft Week Baltimore, MD

Abby Modell, founder and creator of LLe-Dom Contemporary Art Glass, is excited to announce the exhibition of her new collections at Clark Priftis Art in Baltimore, M.D from September through October, 2010. In conjunction with this showing, LLe-Dom will kick off American Craft Week 2010 at the Gallery with a Trunk Show. This will take place Friday, October 1 from 5-8pm and Saturday October 2 from 11-8pm. There will be a “Meet the Artist” cocktail reception on Saturday, October 2 from 5-7pm. Please RSVP to info@clarkpriftisart.com. Clark Priftis Art is located at 100 International Drive at the Legg Mason Building in Baltimore, MD.

Abby Modell will be previewing two new collections. The Sherbert Collection features her Organic Vessels, vases and bowls in an array of dramatic pastel colors. The Amber and White Collection makes a new classic statement by mixing modern designs and traditional shapes. Featured will be vases and bowls. All of her work is inspired by dynamic shapes and forms found in nature.

About Abby Modell for LLe-Dom Contemporary Art Glass

Abby Modell designs luxurious contemporary art glass for LLe-Dom. These extraordinary one-of-kind pieces fuse the boundaries between solid objects and fluid motion. Abby has taken her vision of style and color and translated it into works of art, creating flowing movement within glass. With a background in fashion and textile design, she draws her inspiration from a wide variety of influences in her daily life – fashion, travel, books, art, nature, gems, furniture and architectural designs. The collection includes sculpture, contemporary art glass, and tabletop designs. LLe-Dom has exhibited at prestigious events including SOFA: NYC 2010, the Architectural Digest Home Show, ArtHamptons International Art Fair, the Hampton Designer Showhouse, the Designer Showhouse of Westchester, the GINA Gallery in New York City, and the Fontainebleau Hotel in Miami. LLe-Dom is featured at Lorin Marsh located in the D&D Building in New York City, at HB Home in East Hampton and New York locations and will also be shown in the HB Home living room at the 2010 Hampton Designer Showhouse in Sag Harbor from July 25 to September 5. Abby is proud to announce her acceptance into two Juried Art Exhibit competitions featuring her designs for LLe-Dom Contemporary Art Glass. Specifically, Transcendence-The Magic of Glass at the Museum and Arts Center in Sequim, Washington from September 1-25, 2010 and The Art of Applied Design at the DHM Digital Gallery in Stillwater, Oklahoma from September 15-December 1, 2010. Her studio and showroom are located in New York City. For more information on LLe-Dom, visit www.lle-dom.com.
